

EE Preliminary Topic of Interest
Bring to First Meeting with Supervisor: January 2012—Student Takes Dialogue Notes

Dialogue notes should be hand-written. Make sure your supervisor signs this form both at the bottom and signs his/her signature in the space next to the grade you earned on the rubric.

Student Name: _____ Supervisor Name: _____

Subject Area: _____ Topic of Interest: _____

Brainstorm possible research questions using the format on the first two handouts of the page “Preparing for the EE”: “How to Brainstorm a Good Research Topic” and “How to Propose a Great EE Topic.” Then, print out, complete, and bring in a copy of the handout “Finalizing a Great Research Question” to your first interview. Write your possible questions below. Take notes with the help of your supervisor for advice on how to improve your question and possible supplemental reading. The rubric attached will be used by your supervisor to evaluate your preparedness.

Research Questions You Might Pose for the Extended Essay:

- 1.

- 2.

Dialogue Notes: _____

Supervisor’s Signature: _____ Date: _____

Candidate’s Signature: _____

*See rating scale on the next page.